

Vanessa Denha-Garmo, Press Secretary (313) 213 - 5274

Learn about programs and services

Wayne County asking residents to STEP into County services

Wayne County — On Saturday July 18, 2009, Wayne County will host STEP Into Wayne County Services day on Belle Isle. The event will take place from 11:00 a.m. to 3:00 p.m. with media availability at 12:00 p.m. Hundreds of Wayne County residents are expected.

Citizens will learn about various Wayne County programs and services including, Wayne County STEP, Nuisance Abatement, Health and Human Services, Mortgage Foreclosure and Business Certification. Voter registration will also be available.

Greg Mathis, retired Michigan 36th District Court judge and syndicated television show judge will also be available at 12 noon to talk about his support of the Wayne County STEP program which is an expungement program that allows onetime, nonviolent offenders wipe out their criminal records by staying clean for five years.

Who: Wayne County Executive Robert Ficano, Judge Greg Mathis and hundreds of Wayne County residents.

What: Introduction to various Wayne county programs and services

Where: Belle Isle

When: Saturday July 18, 2009 11 a.m. – 3 p.m.

Media availability 12:00 p.m.

#