Sheriff gives away 50 Thanksgiving Turkeys

Fifty local needy families got an unexpected surprise this year when they received a free Thanksgiving turkey, compliments of Wayne County Sheriff Warren Evans. The Sheriff delivered the first 20 birds today to Detroit Rescue Mission Ministries in Highland Park, which had several families on hand to receive them. The other 30 were delivered to the Hunt Outreach Center and God's Way Tabernacle Church in Detroit.

"Unfortunately there are a lot of local families who are having a hard time making ends meet and can't afford some of the basic things we all take for granted," Evans said. "Hopefully, this small gesture will make the Thanksgiving Holiday a little happier and help provide some families with fond memories."

Evans thanked Rev. Loyce Lester of Original New Grace Missionary Baptist Church in Detroit for providing the turkeys.
