Sheriff offers "Ladies Only" CCW gun safety class

Women who wish to obtain a permit to carry a concealed weapon (CCW) will have a chance to receive their required safety training as a group when the Wayne County Sheriff's Office in partnership with the Wayne County Community College District offers a "for women only" CCW gun safety class on May 12th, Sheriff Warren Evans said today.

"We are seeing an increasing number of women who, for business or personal reasons, are choosing to carry a concealed weapon," Evans said. "We thought that having a women's only class would make for a more comfortable environment since some of the women attending might be there because of stalking or domestic violence issues involving men."

The Class will run from 8:00 AM until 6:00 PM. The first half of the day will consist of classroom-based instruction at the Sheriff's Training Center, located at the western campus of WCCCD, located at 9555 Haggerty Road in Belleville. The second half of the day will consist of firearms training at the Sheriff's indoor pistol range, located at 3100 Henry Ruff in Westland.

The cost for the class is $125, which is less expensive than many privately run CCW classes. Payment should be in the form of a money order made payable to the Wayne County Sheriff's Office.

Required equipment for the class includes shooting eyeglasses, headset ear protection, a cleaning kit for 9mm and .38 caliber firearms. Warm, loose clothing is suggested. Guns and ammunition will be provided by the Sheriff's Office

To register for the class, contact the Sheriff's Training Center at 734-699-6007.

Note: This is a gun safety class. Completion of the class does not guarantee that each individual's application for a CCW license will be approved by the Wayne County Gun Board
