Sheriff & Easter Bunny team up to deliver smiles to courageous kids at Children's Hospital

Wayne County Sheriff Warren Evans chats with Matteo Selgado, 8, a patient at Children's Hospital in Detroit on Good Friday. The Sheriff teamed up with the Easter Bunny (actually an undercover Sheriff's Deputy) to bring Easter gifts to kids who spent the holiday at the hospital trying to heal.

"A lot of people think of police officers as heroes, but these kids are my heroes," Evans said. "To be facing some of the challenges they have and still remain upbeat is truly inspiring."
